

PIET MONDRIAN

Piet Mondrian was a Dutch painter who cofounded the De Stijl Movement. His "famous" paintings were abstract made from squares and rectangles but he started out painting trees.

Handwriting practice area consisting of three sets of horizontal lines. Each set includes a solid top line, a dashed middle line, and a solid bottom line.

"It is not important to make many pictures but that I have one picture right."

-Piet Mondrian