

Read the sentences. Answer each question with the correct answer.

Summer was in full swing, and everyone was enjoying their time outside. The lifeguard at the pool made sure everyone was safe while they splashed around and played games like volleyball.

On this day, a group of friends decided to have a picnic outside. They brought sandwiches and chips and even set off some fireworks for fun. But, they forgot to put on sunscreen, and soon they all had painful sunburns.

One girl with a ponytail had read in the newspaper that you should always wear sunscreen and sunglasses to keep your skin safe when outside during the summer months. From then on, the group of friends always wore sunscreen when playing outside!

Why is it important to wear sunscreen and sunglasses?

What did the group of friends decide to eat at their picnic?

Why did the group of friends wear sunscreen when playing outside from this day on?

Describe the group's sunburn.