

Fill in the number bonds using the pictures.

A number bond diagram with a large empty circle at the top, two lines connecting it to two smaller circles at the bottom. The left smaller circle contains the number 2, and the right smaller circle contains the number 3. To the left of the number bond are two spiders and three taxis.

A number bond diagram with a large empty circle at the top, two lines connecting it to two smaller circles at the bottom. The left smaller circle contains the number 1, and the right smaller circle contains the number 4. To the left of the number bond are one fountain pen and four books.

A number bond diagram with a large empty circle at the top, two lines connecting it to two smaller circles at the bottom. The left smaller circle contains the number 0, and the right smaller circle contains the number 5. To the left of the number bond are five jars and three cats.

A number bond diagram with a large empty circle at the top, two lines connecting it to two smaller circles at the bottom. The left smaller circle contains the number 3, and the right smaller circle contains the number 2. To the left of the number bond are two hats and three cats.

A number bond diagram with a large empty circle at the top, two lines connecting it to two smaller circles at the bottom. The left smaller circle contains the number 4, and the right smaller circle contains the number 1. To the left of the number bond are one mouse and four buses.

A number bond diagram with a large empty circle at the top, two lines connecting it to two smaller circles at the bottom. The left smaller circle contains the number 5, and the right smaller circle contains the number 0. To the left of the number bond are five chickens.