

1. Mars might seem warm, but it's actually very chilly with an average temperature of -62 degrees Celsius.

2. Mars has two moons named Phobos and Deimos.

3. Mars is nicknamed the Red Planet because of the iron in its soil.

4. A day on Mars lasts 24.6 hours, which is not much longer than a day on Earth. However, a year on Mars is much longer, taking 687 Earth days.