

1. Neptune is classified as an 'Ice Giant' due to its cold and icy composition.
2. Positioned at the outermost part of the Solar System, Neptune holds the title of the final planet.
3. The name Neptune is derived from the Roman God of the Sea.
4. Neptune is surrounded by a total of 14 moons.
5. No humans have had the opportunity to explore or set foot on Neptune.