

1. Venus is the second planet from the sun.

2. On Venus, it doesn't rain water like it does on Earth.

Instead, it rains something called sulfuric acid.

3. Venus is almost like Earth in size and how strong the gravity feels.

4. Inside Venus, there's something called an iron core, but it doesn't have a magnetic field like a big space magnet.