

Write a story about a child who is worried Santa Claus won't come to their house on Christmas Eve.

Explain how the different types of winter weather are formed.

Would you rather be able to only wear cozy pajamas for the entire month or wear a fancy holiday outfit every day?

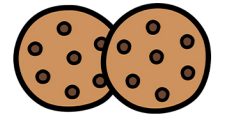

Should we have winter break or not? Why?

Describe the perfect winter day.

Persuade your readers to try your favorite holiday food.

What would you say to a snowman?

Describe your ideal winter vacation. Where would you go?

What do you think Santa does when he's not delivering toys?

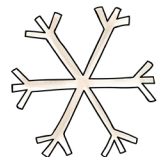

Write a poem about the magic of the holiday season.

Write a letter to a soldier overseas expressing gratitude for their service.

If you were a snowflake, what kinds of things would you see?

Imagine you are
a snowflake.
Write a story about
your journey from
the sky to the ground.

Imagine you are an elf working in Santa's workshop.
Describe an average
day in your life.

In your opinion,
what is the most important part
of celebrating
the December holidays?

Would you rather have a real
Christmas tree or an artificial
one?

Write a letter to a
historical figure,
asking them
how they celebrated the December holidays in their time.

Write a persuasive
essay on why
spending time
with family and friends is more important than giving or receiving gifts during the December holidays.

Compare and contrast
building a snowman
and making
sandcastles
on the beach.

Compare and contrast
the excitement
of opening presents
on Christmas Day and the anticipation of waiting for the Tooth Fairy.

Write a story using these words:

present
buy
store
turkey

Write a story using these words:

shop
grocery
store
dance

Write a story using these words:

lights
Christmas
tangle
Grinch

Write a story using these words:

penguin
waddle
snow
fire