

Describe what humid means.

Describe how to play tag.

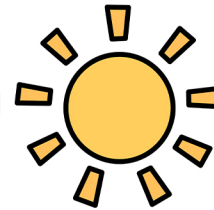

How is paper made?

Explain how to make pancakes.

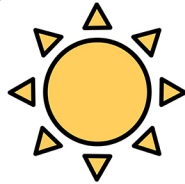

Explain why June is considered the beginning of summer.

Explain why people get dehydrated.

Describe the longest day of the year, known as the summer solstice, and why it happens in June.

Explain the significance of Father's Day, including its history and traditions.

Inform your readers about the different fruits and vegetables that are in season during June and why eating seasonally is beneficial.

Inform readers about the different flowers that bloom in June and why they are important.

Inform readers about the various outdoor activities that people enjoy during June and why they are popular choices during this month.

Describe the importance of how we can protect our sea life in the oceans.

