

Write a story about a talking snowman who comes to life when nobody is looking.

Imagine you find a secret door that leads to a new world inside your closet. Write about your adventures in this winter wonderland.

What is your favorite December holiday tradition and why?

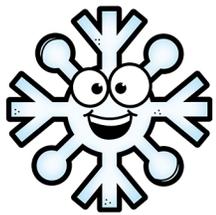

Would you rather stay up late on New Year's Eve or wake up early on Christmas morning?

Write a letter to a local firefighter or police officer expressing gratitude for their service during the holiday season.

Write a persuasive letter to your principal asking for a day-long holiday party.

Compare the weather in December and July.

Compare and contrast the foods typically eaten during the December holidays and during summer barbecues.

Write a story about a group of friends who get lost in a winter wonderland.

Explain the importance of giving and volunteering during the holiday season.

Would you rather have a magic sled that can take you anywhere in the world or magic kitchen that can make any dessert you want?

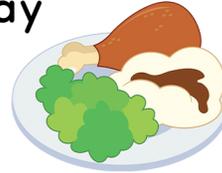

Would you rather meet an elf or a snowman? Why?

Would you rather get coal in your stocking or stinky socks?

Describe your family's holiday traditions.

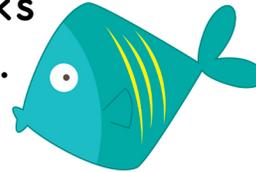

Describe what it would be like to go ice fishing.

Compare McDonalds and Burger King.

Explain how fish and sharks are different.

Write a letter to Santa letting him know what you want for Christmas.

Write a silly story about a friendly elf that gets left at your house by Santa.

Describe the best gift you ever received.

Write a story using these words:

Santa chimney stuck reindeer

Write a story using these words:

cookie
house alien icing

Write a story using these words:

igloo
winter
North Pole
cookie

Write a story using these words:

polar bear
white fur dance