

Add "s" to most singular nouns to make them plural. For possession, add an apostrophe and "s" to a singular noun to show that something belongs to someone or something.

DIRECTIONS: Circle the correct possessive noun to complete the sentence.

The aunt's / aunts cars are parked outside.

May has book's / books on the table.

The children's / childrens playground is new.

The clinic's / clinics are busy.

The friend's backpack's / backpacks are colorful.

My shoe's / shoes are in the closet.

The house's / houses windows are clean.

Our desk's / desks look organized.

My mom's / moms hats are hanging on the rack.

The students' / students classrooms are bright.