

Use the space provided to draw and solve each word problem.

Next, check your answer using an addition sentence.

A box had 9 markers. 3 markers are missing, and 1 marker was broken. How many markers are still good?

$$\square - \square - \square = \square$$

There were 7 kids playing outside. 2 kids went home, and 1 more left later. How many kids are still playing?

$$\square - \square - \square = \square$$

Sarah had 10 marbles. She lost 4 marbles and gave 2 away. How many marbles does she have now?

$$\square - \square - \square = \square$$

You had 7 candies. You ate 2 candies, and your friend ate 3. How many candies are left?

$$\square - \square - \square = \square$$