

Fill in the blanks with the type of word shown. Read the story aloud.

My Super Silly Easter

One _____ ADJECTIVE Easter morning, _____ PERSON'S NAME woke up feeling _____ ADJECTIVE and ran downstairs, excited to find their _____ ADJECTIVE Easter basket. But instead of candy, it was filled with _____ PLURAL NOUN covered in _____ STICKY SUBSTANCE!

"_____ SILLY WORD!" they shouted, accidentally stepping on a _____ ADJECTIVE _____ NOUN.

Just then, a _____ ADJECTIVE Easter Bunny hopped into the room, wearing a _____ ADJECTIVE _____ ARTICLE OF CLOTHING and juggling _____ PLURAL NOUN. "Happy Easter!" he said, handing them a _____ ADJECTIVE _____ NOUN shaped like a _____ ANIMAL.

Suddenly, _____ ADJECTIVE _____ ANIMAL rolled in, carrying a _____ ADJECTIVE Easter egg that cracked open to reveal _____ PLURAL NOUN that shouted, "_____ FUNNY PHRASE!"

It was the _____ ADJECTIVE Easter ever—especially when the _____ NOUN started _____ VERB ENDING IN -ING all by itself!