

A little girl named Sue,
Had a pet frog that was blue.

It hopped and it jumped,
And sometimes it thumped,
It was the best frog she knew!

There once was a cat named Lou,
Who always wore one blue shoe.

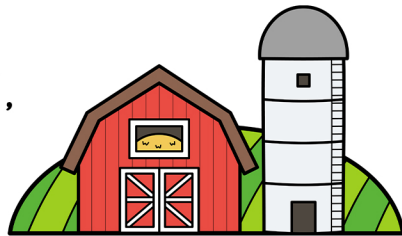

He danced all around,
With a leap and a bound,
And sang to the cows that moo!

There was a young boy from the farm,
Who had a great big alarm.

It rang and it buzzed,
Until his dad fussed,

And now it does no more harm.

A kitten that loved to play,
Would chase all the mice away.

She purred and she meowed,
And never was loud,

She slept most of the day.
