

Practice adding both opening and closing marks in the correct positions.

1. The teacher said Please remember to bring your books tomorrow to the whole class.

2. My favorite author J.K. Rowling wrote the Harry Potter series.

3. Sam asked Can I go to the park after school?

4. The old castle which was built in 1842 is now a popular museum.

5. The recipe calls for three ingredients flour, sugar, and eggs to make the cookies.

6. Mom reminded me Don't forget your lunch box before I left for school.

7. The basketball team winners of last year's championship practiced every day.

8. According to the weather report it will be sunny tomorrow so we can have our picnic.

9. My little brother shouted I found my missing toy when he looked under the bed.

10. The school play Romeo and Juliet will be performed next Friday evening.

Practice adding both opening and closing marks in the correct positions.

1. The teacher said "Please remember to bring your books tomorrow" to the whole class.

2. My favorite author (J.K. Rowling) wrote the Harry Potter series.

3. Sam asked "Can I go to the park after school?"

4. The old castle, which was built in 1842, is now a popular museum.

5. The recipe calls for three ingredients (flour, sugar, and eggs) to make the cookies.

6. Mom reminded me "Don't forget your lunch box" before I left for school.

7. The basketball team (winners of last year's championship) practiced every day.

8. According to the weather report "it will be sunny tomorrow" so we can have our picnic.

9. My little brother shouted "I found my missing toy" when he looked under the bed.

10. The school play "Romeo and Juliet" will be performed next Friday evening.