

Read two simple sentences and combine them using the correct conjunction.

I went to the store. I bought milk.

He is tired. He will keep working.

You can eat cereal. You can eat toast.

She didn't call. She didn't text.

I was hungry. I ate a sandwich.

He ran fast. He didn't win.

I stayed home. It was raining.

We can go to the beach. We can stay home.

The baby smiled. The baby clapped.

She didn't do her homework. She didn't study.

Read two simple sentences and combine them using the correct conjunction.

I went to the store. I bought milk.

I went to the store and bought milk.

He is tired. He will keep working.

He is tired, yet he will keep working.

You can eat cereal. You can eat toast.

You can eat cereal or toast.

She didn't call. She didn't text.

She neither called nor texted.

I was hungry. I ate a sandwich.

I was hungry, so I ate a sandwich.

He ran fast. He didn't win.

He ran fast, but he didn't win.

I stayed home. It was raining.

I stayed home, for it was raining.

We can go to the beach. We can stay home.

We can go to the beach or stay home.

The baby smiled. The baby clapped.

The baby smiled and clapped.

She didn't do her homework. She didn't study.

She did neither her homework nor study.