

Fill in the blanks with the type of word shown. Read the story aloud.

A Day of Spreading Kindness

One _____ morning, _____ woke up and decided to spread kindness all around _____. First, they helped a _____ _____ carry _____ across the street while wearing a _____ made of _____.

“ _____ !” they shouted, feeling so _____. Next, they saw their neighbor struggling with _____, so they jumped in to help while doing the
_____.

At school, _____ shared their _____ with a classmate and said “ _____ ” in a _____ voice. The teacher was so impressed, she gave them a gold star made of _____!

During recess, they organized a game of _____ and made sure everyone got a turn, even the _____ who wandered onto the playground carrying a _____.

After school, _____ helped _____ by _____ all the _____ and singing _____ at the top of their lungs.

By bedtime, their kindness had spread to _____ people, _____ animals, and even a _____ that learned to say “thank you” in _____!

It was the most _____ day of kindness ever, and _____ went to sleep with a _____ smile, dreaming of _____ doing cartwheels!