

Read each group of words. In the box, write CS if it is a complete sentence and write F if it is a fragment. If it is a fragment, write what is missing: Subject or Predicate.

The fluffy white cat.

A yellow school bus
stopped at the corner.

My dad grilled hamburgers at the park.

The tired puppy on the couch.

Jumped over the puddle.

Ran as fast as she could.

Read each group of words. In the box, write CS if it is a complete sentence and write F if it is a fragment. If it is a fragment, write what is missing: Subject or Predicate.

The fluffy white cat.

A yellow school bus
stopped at the corner.

F – Missing predicate

CS

My dad grilled hamburgers at the park.

The tired puppy on the couch.

CS

F – Missing predicate

Jumped over the puddle.

Ran as fast as she could.

F – Missing subject

F – Missing subject