

Use the word bank to fill in the blanks for each stage of the pollination diagram.

STAGE 3

_____ from the anther sticks to the pollinator's body.

STAGE 2

A _____ (bee, butterfly, or wind) visits the flower and collects _____.

STAGE 4

The pollinator travels to another flower. Pollen is transferred to that flower's _____.

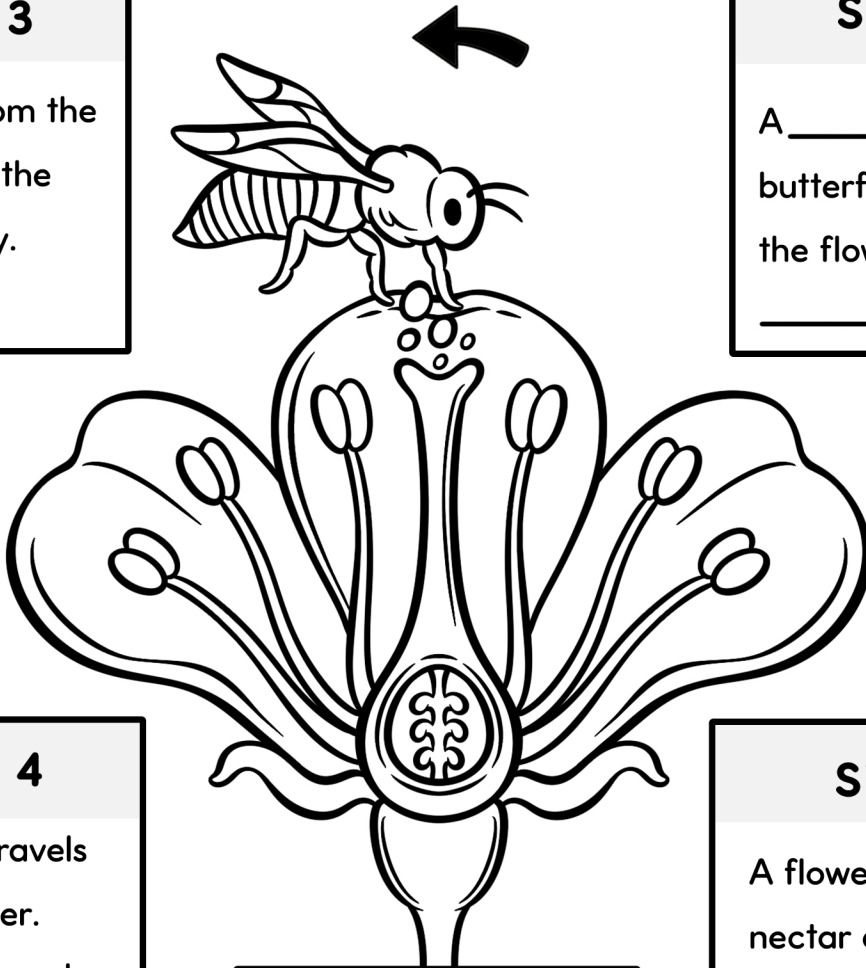

STAGE 5

Pollen travels down the style to the ovary. _____ happens and a seed begins to form.

STAGE 1

A flower produces nectar and pollen in its _____.

pollen anther stigma nectar pollinator fertilization