

HOW BEES MAKE HONEY

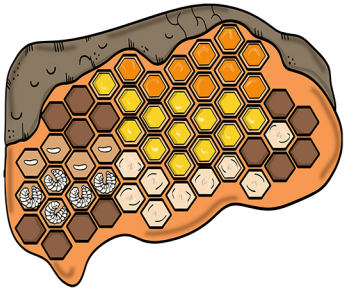

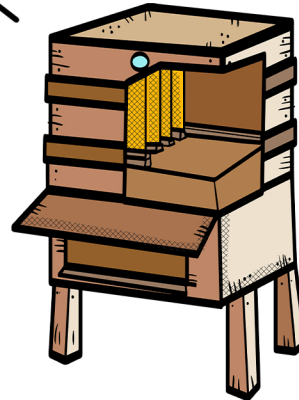

stage 1

A bee lands on a flower to collect nectar and pollen sticks to its legs and body.

stage 2

The bee carries the nectar back to the hive.

stage 3

Worker bees pass the nectar to one another until it thickens into honey.

stage 4

The honey is stored and sealed inside honeycomb cells made of beeswax.

