

Fill in the blank using the given word bank. Some words may be used more than once.

☐ egg☐ pupa☐ larva☐ adult

1. A bee begins its life as a tiny _____ laid inside a wax cell.

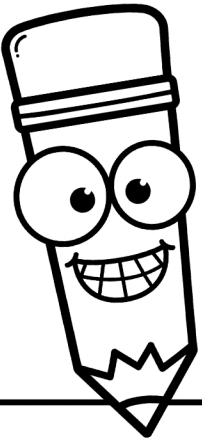

2. After hatching, the bee becomes a legless, worm-like _____.

3. During the _____ stage, the bee's body changes shape inside a sealed cell.

4. A fully grown, winged bee is called an _____.

5. The _____ eats constantly to grow bigger.

6. Once a bee becomes an _____, it can fly and help the colony.

Fill in the blank using the given word bank. Some words may be used more than once.

☐ egg☐ pupa☐ larva☐ adult

1. A bee begins its life as a tiny egg laid inside a wax cell.

2. After hatching, the bee becomes a legless, worm-like larva.

3. During the pupa stage, the bee's body changes shape inside a sealed cell.

4. A fully grown, winged bee is called an adult.

5. The larva eats constantly to grow bigger.

6. Once a bee becomes an adult, it can fly and help the colony.