

BEE LIFE CYCLE VOCABULARY CARDS

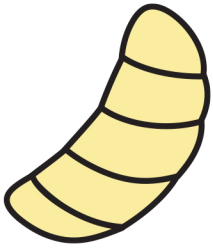

SUPERSTARWORKSHEETS.COM

egg

SUPERSTARWORKSHEETS.COM

The very first life stage — a tiny oval laid by the queen inside a wax cell.

SUPERSTARWORKSHEETS.COM

SUPERSTARWORKSHEETS.COM

larva

SUPERSTARWORKSHEETS.COM

A small, legless, worm-like stage that hatches and eats constantly to grow.

SUPERSTARWORKSHEETS.COM

SUPERSTARWORKSHEETS.COM

pupa

SUPERSTARWORKSHEETS.COM

A resting stage inside a sealed cell where the body changes shape before becoming an adult.

SUPERSTARWORKSHEETS.COM

SUPERSTARWORKSHEETS.COM

adult

SUPERSTARWORKSHEETS.COM

A fully grown, winged insect that can fly, gather food, and help the colony.

SUPERSTARWORKSHEETS.COM