

FROG ADAPTATIONS VOCABULARY CARDS

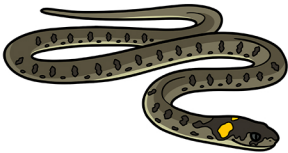

SUPERSTARWORKSHEETS.COM

camouflage

SUPERSTARWORKSHEETS.COM

Colors or patterns that help a frog blend in with its surroundings so predators have trouble spotting it.

SUPERSTARWORKSHEETS.COM

SUPERSTARWORKSHEETS.COM

predator

SUPERSTARWORKSHEETS.COM

An animal that hunts and eats other animals.

SUPERSTARWORKSHEETS.COM

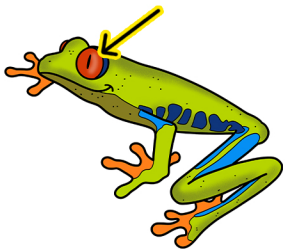

SUPERSTARWORKSHEETS.COM

prey

SUPERSTARWORKSHEETS.COM

An animal that is hunted and eaten by another animal.

SUPERSTARWORKSHEETS.COM

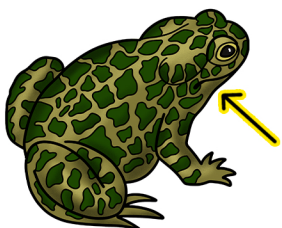

SUPERSTARWORKSHEETS.COM

bulging eyes

SUPERSTARWORKSHEETS.COM

Eyes that stick up and out from the head, letting a frog see in almost every direction at once.

SUPERSTARWORKSHEETS.COM

SUPERSTARWORKSHEETS.COM

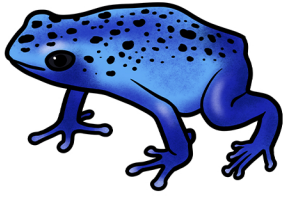

croak

SUPERSTARWORKSHEETS.COM

The sound a frog makes, often to warn other frogs to stay away.

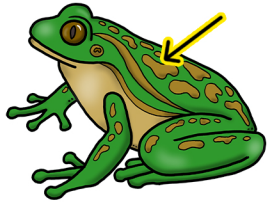

SUPERSTARWORKSHEETS.COM

FROG ADAPTATIONS VOCABULARY CARDS

poison/toxin

A harmful substance some frogs make in their skin to keep predators from eating them.

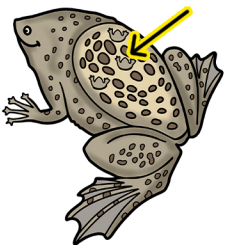

permeable skin

Skin with tiny openings that let water, air, and sometimes harmful substances pass through it.

toad

A close relative of the frog with drier, bumpier skin, often used to compare with frogs.

warty skin

Bumpy, rough skin, most often seen on toads rather than frogs.