

TWO TRUTHS & A LIE: PENGUINS

Penguins are birds, even though they cannot fly.

A group of penguins on land is called a colony.

All penguins live at the North Pole.

SUPERSTARWORKSHEETS.COM

TWO TRUTHS & A LIE: PENGUINS

Emperor penguins are the tallest penguin species.

Penguins have feathers, not fur.

Penguins can breathe underwater like fish.

SUPERSTARWORKSHEETS.COM

TWO TRUTHS & A LIE: PENGUINS

A baby penguin is called a chick.

Penguins never go in the water.

Some penguins huddle together to stay warm.

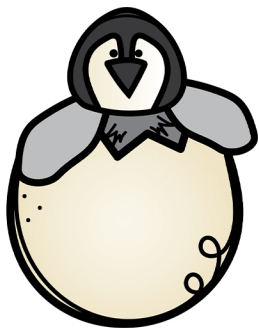

SUPERSTARWORKSHEETS.COM

TWO TRUTHS & A LIE: PENGUINS

Penguins use their flippers to swim instead of fly.

Penguins only eat plants.

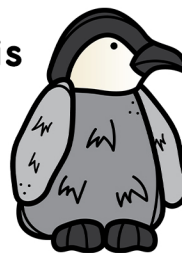

Blubber helps keep penguins warm.

SUPERSTARWORKSHEETS.COM

TWO TRUTHS & A LIE: PENGUINS

Penguins build their nests high up in trees.

A penguin chick is covered in fluffy down when it hatches.

Penguins are found in the Southern Hemisphere, including Antarctica.

SUPERSTARWORKSHEETS.COM

TWO TRUTHS & A LIE: PENGUINS

The Little penguin is the smallest penguin species.

Penguins can fly long distances over the ocean.

Penguins have webbed feet to help them swim.

SUPERSTARWORKSHEETS.COM