BEE VOCABULARY CARDS

 SUPERSTARWORKSHEETS.COM	head SUPERSTARWORKSHEETS.COM	The front part of the body where the eyes, antennae, and mouthparts are found. SUPERSTARWORKSHEETS.COM
 SUPERSTARWORKSHEETS.COM	thorax SUPERSTARWORKSHEETS.COM	The middle section of the body where the wings and legs attach. SUPERSTARWORKSHEETS.COM
 SUPERSTARWORKSHEETS.COM	abdomen SUPERSTARWORKSHEETS.COM	The back section of the body, used for digestion and holding the stinger. SUPERSTARWORKSHEETS.COM
 SUPERSTARWORKSHEETS.COM	antennae SUPERSTARWORKSHEETS.COM	Two thin, bendy feelers on top of the face used for smelling and touching. SUPERSTARWORKSHEETS.COM
 SUPERSTARWORKSHEETS.COM	compound eyes SUPERSTARWORKSHEETS.COM	Large eyes made of many tiny lenses that help spot movement and color. SUPERSTARWORKSHEETS.COM

Images (c) Artifex., KA Fonts

BEE VOCABULARY CARDS

	wing	Thin, see-through parts that let the insect fly from flower to flower.
	legs	Six jointed limbs used for walking, gripping, and collecting pollen.
	mandibles	Strong jaw-like mouthparts used for chewing wax, building the nest, and grooming.
	stinger	A sharp, pointed part at the back end used to defend the colony.

SUPERSTARWORKSHEETS.COM

Images (c) Artifex,, KA Fonts