

Draw a line to match each word to its definition.

stamen

The male part of a flower that produces pollen.

pistil

The part of the stamen that holds and releases pollen grains.

anther

The thin stalk that holds the anther up
inside the flower.

filament

The female part of a flower that receives
pollen and makes seeds.

stigma

The sticky top part of the pistil that catches pollen.

style

The tube that connects the stigma down
to the ovary.

ovary

The base of the pistil
where seeds develop
after fertilization.