TWO TRUTHS & A LIE: CIRCULATORY SYSTEM

The heart has four chambers.

The left ventricle has the thickest walls of any heart chamber.

The right atrium pumps blood to the whole body.

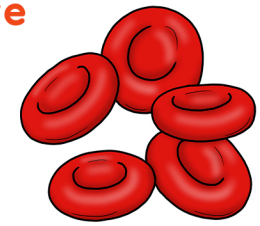

SUPERSTARWORKSHEETS.COM

TWO TRUTHS & A LIE: CIRCULATORY SYSTEM

Arteries carry blood away from the heart.

Many veins have valves that keep blood from flowing backward.

Capillaries are the largest blood vessels in the body.

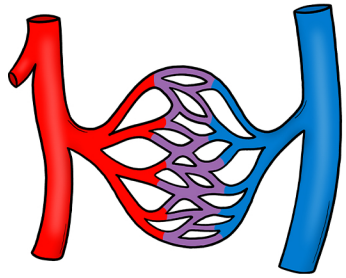

SUPERSTARWORKSHEETS.COM

TWO TRUTHS & A LIE: CIRCULATORY SYSTEM

Red blood cells carry oxygen.

White blood cells give blood its red color.

Platelets help blood clot.

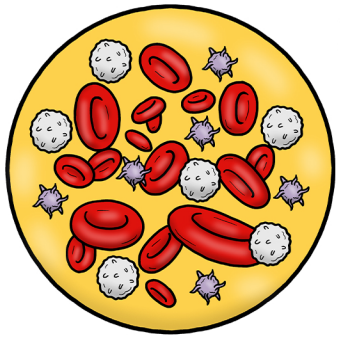

SUPERSTARWORKSHEETS.COM

TWO TRUTHS & A LIE: CIRCULATORY SYSTEM

New blood cells are made in bone marrow.

The blood inside your veins is blue.

Plasma is mostly water.

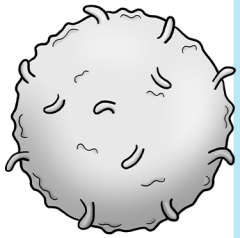

SUPERSTARWORKSHEETS.COM

TWO TRUTHS & A LIE: CIRCULATORY SYSTEM

Systemic circulation carries blood only to the lungs.

The pulmonary artery carries blood to the lungs.

Blood picks up oxygen during pulmonary circulation.

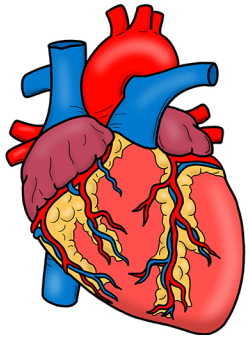

SUPERSTARWORKSHEETS.COM

TWO TRUTHS & A LIE: CIRCULATORY SYSTEM

You can feel your pulse in your wrist and neck.

Your heart stops beating completely while you sleep.

Your heart rate goes up when you exercise.

SUPERSTARWORKSHEETS.COM

Images (c) Color Idea