TWO TRUTHS & A LIE: DIGESTIVE SYSTEM

Digestion begins in the mouth.

Saliva starts breaking down starches.

Food passes through the liver on its way to the small intestine.

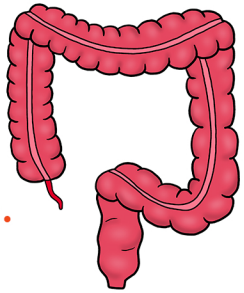

SUPERSTARWORKSHEETS.COM

TWO TRUTHS & A LIE: DIGESTIVE SYSTEM

The small intestine is longer than the large intestine.

Villi help absorb nutrients.

Most nutrients are absorbed in the stomach.

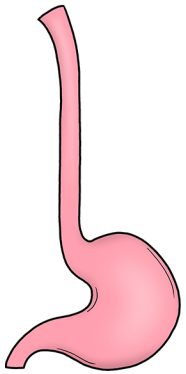

SUPERSTARWORKSHEETS.COM

TWO TRUTHS & A LIE: DIGESTIVE SYSTEM

The liver makes bile.

Bile contains enzymes that break down fat.

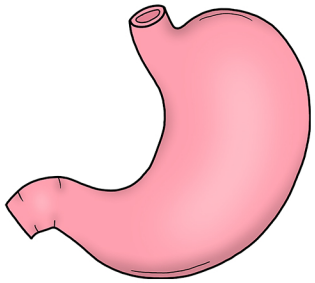

The gallbladder stores bile.

SUPERSTARWORKSHEETS.COM

TWO TRUTHS & A LIE: DIGESTIVE SYSTEM

Peristalsis pushes food through the esophagus.

Food reaches the stomach only because gravity pulls it down.

You can swallow while lying down.

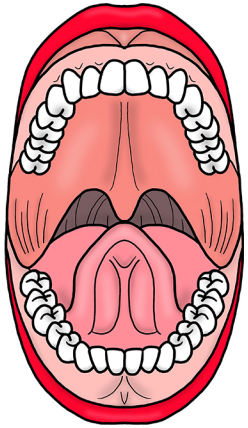

SUPERSTARWORKSHEETS.COM

TWO TRUTHS & A LIE: DIGESTIVE SYSTEM

Churning in the stomach is chemical digestion.

Chewing is mechanical digestion.

Pepsin breaks down proteins.

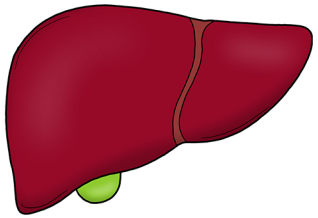

SUPERSTARWORKSHEETS.COM

TWO TRUTHS & A LIE: DIGESTIVE SYSTEM

The digestive system eliminates feces.

The digestive system makes urine.

The large intestine absorbs water.

SUPERSTARWORKSHEETS.COM

Images (c) Color Idea